

Name: _____

Chapter 8 lesson 1 Study guide work sheet

Directions: Complete the lesson outline below by filling in the blanks

What Are Communicable Diseases?

1. The types of pathogens include viruses, _____, fungi, and _____.
2. Ways that pathogens can enter the body are:
 - a. _____
 - b. _____
 - c. _____
 - d. _____
 - e. _____

Your Body's Defense against Communicable Diseases

3. Some of the immune system's defenses against pathogens include:
 - a. Healthy, unbroken _____, which covers the body.
 - b. The thick, sticky _____ inside the nose and mouth.
 - c. Tiny hairs called _____ inside the air passages
 - d. Higher than normal body temperature, or _____
 - e. Antibodies formed by _____
4. The third line of defense against pathogens is _____, which can sometimes be provided by vaccines.

Name: _____

Chapter 8 lesson 1 Vocabulary Worksheet

Communicable Diseases

Directions: Use the word bank to complete the sentences.

Antibodies	communicable disease	immune system
Immunity	pathogens	vaccines
White blood cells

1. Resistance to a particular disease is called
_____.
2. Living organisms or particles that can cause disease are
_____.
3. Dead or weakened pathogens given for immunity are
_____.
4. Pathogens that can be spread from person to person can cause a(n)
_____.
5. In the body, pathogens that cause infection and illness are fought off by _____, which are part of the immune system.
6. Protein substances in blood that can find, weaken, or destroy certain pathogens are _____.
7. All of the body organs, tissues, and cells that destroy pathogens make up the _____.